To consider the following Notice of Motion submitted by Councillor Jed Hillary:-

Great Aycliffe Town Council recognises the significant contribution to the community and the milestone achievements of Newtonians. The recent passing of Syd Howarth MBE was marked by the large number of written tributes for a true man of the people. This and the community turnout at his funeral, ably demonstrated that he selflessly served the community of Great Aycliffe in his many roles. The Durham County Council (DCC) Street Naming Policy sets out the conditions for proposing streets to be named after people and allows individuals and bodies to put forward such suggestions and recommendations.

'It is proposed that Great Aycliffe Town Council makes a recommendation to DCC to have a street named after the late Syd Howarth, in the next phase of residential development within the Parish. It is further proposed that the Planning sub-committee look at other late Newtonians who have served their community or represented the Parish, for similar recognition.'
